Letter dated 15-9-1930 from Gibi, Vasudevachar, Kumsi, to the Comptroller in Mysore, Bangalore.

Subject. - Re: conversion of state life insurance amount into 5½@ Bonds of 1938.

With reference to Financial Secretary's order No.Fl.1077-G.F. 6-30-4 dated 11th August 1930, I beg to bring the following facts to your kind consideration and early orders:-

1. I am a policy holder for Rs.1000/- in Mysore state life insurance public branch under endowment policy No.12/C11.

2. In the above letter of the Financial Secretary, it is stated that persons, whose endowment policies mature before 1st January 1934, will be permitted to take the whole or part of the amounts of their policies on their maturity in the form of either the 5% of 1955 or 5½% of 1938% bonds.

3. But my policy matures on the 3rd November 1935. Can you, as a special case permit me to convert the whole of my policy amount into 5½% bonds of 1938. If required I shall in advance, now pay the balance premium of Rs.281-3-0 due on the policy till 3rd November 1935. In addition to the policy amount of Rs.1000/- I have been given a bonus of Rs.62-8-0 on the policy till the end of June 1928, which also matures on the 3rd November 1935.

4. If you can kindly convert the amount of the policy together with the bonus, into 5½% bonds of 1938, please give me detail instructions on the matter and oblige.

5. If required I shall send the policy for your kind perusal after learning from you.

Thanking you.
